Tel Aviv plays host to the best of the best

Three weeks, nine international restaurants, nine Tel Aviv restaurants, 26 international chefs and restaurateurs, 16 food writers from around the world, and 10,000 diners. This month, the world's most talked-about restaurants – from New York, London, Barcelona, Rome, Amsterdam and Athens – send their chefs to take over Tel Aviv's finest restaurants. It's all part of Round Tables by American Express, a massive new international culinary project bringing together the world's best chefs and restaurants in one host city, starting with Tel Aviv. Every Tel Aviv restaurant gets an international sister restaurant, hosting it for an entire week with an evening menu that includes a tasting menu from the guest establishment, with some added touches inspired by local chefs.

November 1-21, Tel Aviv
